

European Labour Authority

Brussels
13 March 2019

DG EMPL – ELA Establishment Group

These slides accompany the explanation of the acquis to Albania and North Macedonia and can only be used for that purpose. Their content is subject to further development of the acquis and interpretation by the Court of Justice of the European Union.

Labour mobility in the EU

The policy context

- Labour mobility legislation
- European Pillar of Social Rights
- Social Fairness Package

"We should make sure that all EU rules on labour mobility are enforced in a fair, simple and effective way"

President Juncker
State of the Union Address 2017

Objectives of the Authority

Strengthened cooperation between national authorities in cross-border enforcement, including inspections

Mediation between national authorities in the event of disputes on relevant Union law

Easier access to information and labour mobility services for individuals and employers

Target groups of the Authority

Workers

- 17 million citizens living or working in other MS (double compared to a decade ago); 12 of working age; amongst these, 9 working or searching a job
- 2.8 million posting operations
- 1.4 cross-border workers (40% more than 2006)

Companies

- Cross-border service providers
- Small and medium enterprises
- Multinational companies

Authorities

- Employment services
- Labour inspectorates
- Social security institutions

The Authority's Tasks (1 to 3)

- 1) Facilitate access to information by individuals, employers and social partners on rights and obligations in cross-border labour mobility situations, including through the coordination of EURES
- 2) Facilitate cooperation and exchange of information between national authorities → through National Liaison Officers within ELA
- 3) Coordinate and support concerted and joint inspections by national authorities (governed under law of MS concerned, possible presence of ELA staff)

The Authority's Tasks (4 to 7)

- 4) Carry out analyses and risk assessments on issues of cross-border labour mobility
- 5) Support capacity building national authorities through guidance, mutual learning and training
- 6) Support Member States in tackling undeclared work
- 7) Mediate in disputes between Member States on the application of EU law concerning labour mobility

European Labour Authority

Governance:	Management Board Executive Director Stakeholder Group
Budget:	from EUR 2 million in 2019 to EUR 50 million at cruising speed in 2024
Staff:	from 15 people in 2019 to 144 people at cruising speed in 2024 (including National Liaison Officers)
Transition:	Establishment of ELA, integration of existing bodies and start-up of new activities

European Labour Authority

State of play

- Co-legislators

Council and European Parliament concluded their negotiations and should finalise the legislative process by June 2019.

- Advisory Group

In parallel, a Group of experts designated by Member States, social partners and other stakeholders discusses practical arrangements until ELA is set-up.

- Establishment

Foreseen by June 2019. Start of the activities in Brussels, pending the decision on the seat.

Thank you!